

[Letter from Harold Spivacke to John A. Lomax; Port Aransas, TX]

February 7, 1939

Mr. John A. Lomax Port Aransas Texas

Dear Mr. Lomax:

I regret that I shall not be able to give you final word regarding the trip until the latter part of next week. First of all the Librarian is out of town and I shall not be able to see him until the middle of next week. Secondly, the machine is not in good working order. Alan reported that it was perfect when he left, but it stopped dead in the middle of the first attempt to play a record. It may need only a slight adjustment, or it may be more serious. I shall have it attended to as fast as possible.

Please don't be discouraged by all this as I shall place the matter to the best of my ability and I am sure that we will catch that Wet Buzzard yet.

With kindest regards,

Sincerely, Harold Spivacke Chief, Division of Music
